

Tolerance Green Necks Style

An amicable, lone protestor is violently tackled from behind. The Green Mob instinctively inflicts psychological violence on the senior citizen, Mr Smith.

Unbelievably, some assisted in the sneak attack by spitting on him.

Disagree with a Green Neck and a scowling contemptuous glare is the least you can expect. No wonder they don't trust others, they can't trust their comrades to behave appropriately!

It takes three Greens employing intimidation to suppress the free speech of one gentleman.
